“ I had the privilege to meet Quonie when he was around 5.... him and Davon were such cute boys to watch grow up. I had a very close relationship with them when they were young and throughout the years have kept in touch as they have grown to be men and fathers. Jackie, I dont know what it is like for you right now because I know how strong you and your boys are...but I do hope you find comfort in knowing that Mrs Mary Jane was there with your baby before he went to the promise land...She held his hand and you must know in your heart that one day you will be reunited with him. He was a fine young man you raised..you did a great job Jackie!!!! Kudos to you for being a strong independent mother. To my love Rudolph (JuneBug) as I have spoken to you the past few days please know that I love you and will always be there for you!!!!
