“ My aunt was so beautiful, funny, smart and intelligent . One of the greatest Mon, Aunts, neighbors, cousin, sister, wife, daughter ,co worker associate one could have! I’m so glad to have had her in my life . I always went to see her when @ home. I would call her in the phone and talk but on Mothers Day it just ring. I know she’s going to be missed. Especially the nursing home. What resident would they let roller skate in the hall way but Anyea . That’s what we called her. When she told me and Calvin that last year we fell out laughing. She and my Mom was the reason we started skating. They belong to the SmokeTown Skating Club ran by Fred Stoner. They would travel to be in computation with other states. After their practice we would put on their skater while they had their meeting. Because they both had Bobby’s she would call our Bobby George Bobby. Love you and gonna miss you soo much. Thank for loving me as well! . Mama’s been waiting on you
