

Edwin Goodwin, Sr.

April 4, 1941 - May 28, 2018

Edwin Goodwin, Sr., passed away on May 28, 2018 in Louisville, Kentucky.

He is survived by his children, Edwin Goodwin, Jr., Troy S. Goodwin, Chad M. Goodwin and Aisha M. Goodwin. Services will be held at Newburg Church of Christ, 4700 East Indian Trail on Saturday, June 2, 2018.

Visitation with family from 2 pm until 3 pm and services starting at 3 pm.

Arrangements entrusted to A.D. Porter & Sons.

Comments

“ Bernie lit a candle in memory of Edwin Goodwin, Sr.

Bernie - June 06, 2019 at 11:53 PM

“ Learned a lot from this wise man. He was a great father figure and worked me hard but I love u pops. The kids talk about you all the time you'll live through Us love always Bernie and Britney

Bernie - June 06, 2019 at 11:52 PM

“ To the family; What ever you may be facing you are never alone. God will take your sorrows and make them his own. You have a special place in my heart and in my prayers. God Bless you all.

Alma Stone - June 13, 2018 at 12:47 PM

“ My name is Amy Zukof (now Haskell). When I was a child, your dad (and maybe several of you as well), would come to our home and take care of the landscaping. We lived on Glencreek Lane, in the circle part of the cul-de-sac. I have the most wonderful memories of your dad. He was so very kind to me, always smiling, and let me toddle around with him as he did his job. He taught me in his soft voice about our plum tree, and that it wasn't supposed to bear fruit because it was so far away from any male trees - and we made dozens of jars of plum jelly, just in case the miracle never happened again, and it didn't - just like he said. My mom and dad both loved working in the yard, my dad loved his roses in the back, but my love of landscaping and caring for plants is owed a great deal to your father as well. In a strange coincidence, my sister called me last week and asked if I remembered your dad's name, which of course I did. And to my great sadness, I saw his name in the obituaries this morning, his face the same as I remember, and my heart broke, and the tears fell. May peace be with you and your family.

Amy Zukof Haskell - June 13, 2018 at 12:47 PM

“ My name is Amy Zukof (now Haskell). When I was a child, your dad (and maybe all of you) would come to our home and take care of the landscaping. We lived on Glencreek Lane, in the circle part of the cul-de-sac. I have the most wonderful memories of your dad. He was so very kind to me, always smiling, and let me toddle around with him as he did his job. He taught me in his soft voice about our plum tree, and that it wasn't supposed to bear fruit because it was so far away from any male trees - and we made dozens of jars of plum jelly, just in case the miracle never happened again, and it didn't - just like he said. My mom and dad both loved working in the yard, my dad loved his roses in the back, but my love of landscaping and caring for plants is owed in great deal to your father as well. In a strange coincidence, my sister called me last week and asked if I remembered your dad's name, which of course I did. And to my great sadness, I saw his name in the obituaries this morning, his face the same as I remember, and my heart broke, and the tears fell. May peace be with you and your family.

Amy Haskell - June 13, 2018 at 12:47 PM

“ Rest in peace, big Eddie...we love you.

Edwin Goodwin - June 13, 2018 at 12:47 PM

“ Eddie, A man that smiled no matter how he felt never thought he had a bad day, So many prayers to the Family and so much love! We loved him but GOD loved him best...R-I-P My Uncle Eddie until we meet again.

Jewell Dickerson - June 13, 2018 at 12:47 PM

“ A Journey RememberedAs some people journey through life, they leave footprints wherever they gofoot prints of kindness and love, courage and compassion, humor and inspiration joy and faith, Even when they're gone, we can still look back and clearly see the trail they left behind---a trail bright with hope that invites us to follow...We will truly miss Eddie Sr... AlwaysLarry, Linda and Leborah Goodwin

Leborah Goodwin - June 13, 2018 at 12:47 PM

“ May the Lord bless you and keep you. Grief is the price you pay for the love you have for the one who crossed over. It has no time limit. We are so sorry for your loss.

william and wanda Jackson - June 13, 2018 at 12:47 PM

“ a dear friend who always had that smile, he will be dearly missed. Charlie boy Jr.

Chales Thornton - June 13, 2018 at 12:47 PM

“ Rest easy now King Selah

Yoni Howard - June 13, 2018 at 12:47 PM