“ I cherish great memories of my special cousin Mary Diana Mudd aka Dee Dee. Not only was she my cousin, she was my friend, my sister/cousin. That's what we used to call each other. We would talk, laugh, dream for hours about how our lives would be. You will truly be missed. I pray for strength for her children, sisters, brothers, mother. That God will give you strength and peace. Sweet dreams my sister/cousin. I love you 🙏

“ Mary and I were just little girls when we met but we became instant friends. We would visit one another's house and play together (talk mostly) but we had fun. We stayed in each other's lives for a while and then we just separated but whenever we would see one another, our friendship had never left. But we grew apart and didn't see one another any more. I started looking for Mary on facebook, couldn't find her, she would run across my mind and I'd look again, still didn't find her. Nobody seemed to have seen my friend, until just the other day. And God said: "Here she is Sharmaine, she's with Me, and I said "okay Lord, then I know again I'll see her too. Thanks for being my friend in those days Mary. I love you for that and I'll miss you".
