“ Solomon, you were such a loving, caring, smart person. You mean so much to so many people. When I got the news you were gone I just could not believe it. It just seems like a nightmare I need to wake up from. Me and you were not as close as I would of liked to been but the times I got with you were amazing and I will never forget them! You always made sure everyone was happy and okay. Things haven't been the same without you and they never will be. I will never forget how many laughs and memories i got with you. You always made a dull moment bright. Your laugh was like no other and you are the best joker I know!! Like we all say, Fly High Solomon. We miss you dearly but we will never forget you ever! We love you so much! Its Solo's World now!
