“ In loving memory of Syreeta O. Jackson, the one I've had the chance to love for two and a half years. You were so great to me, but wouldn't rest a minute for yourself. I miss you, and still need you in my life. You said you'd never leave me, but I'm grateful that now you won't have to suffer anymore pain. I love you Streets, and I will always be here for your children like we talked about, and to them, may God give them comfort in their time of grief.
