“ My heart is heavy right now. Pat's smile and his big heart will never be forgotten. To my cousins trust and lean on the Lord for he will see you through...

“ Sometimes allowing yourself to cry is the scariest thing you'll ever do and the bravest it takes a lot of courage to face the facts, stare loss in the face, bare your heart and let it bleed. But it is the only way to cleanse your wounds and prepare them for the healing. God will take care of the rest. Love Shochon Stevenson & Children
