“ To my Cousin Vera I can only imagine how and what you are going through with the loss of your husband Al? I know and witness how much he loved you. I had the pleasure of going your wedding and what a beautiful wedding it was not to mention one you will always remember the date every thing was seven, seven, seven July 07, 2017 if I remember correctly how awesome it was. I know there will never be another one can replace Al because there was nothing he didn't do for you he constantly shower you with gifts that every woman wish she had in a man and I loved that about him you because you were his Queen

Where do I start? What a great man. So happy that I witnessed how much joy and love he brought to my friend's life. There is no woman on this earth could be blessed with such a loving husband. Vera deserved every day of happiness that God brought her when Al became her friend and then her husband.

His passing is such a big loss not just to family but also friends. Al's kindness just made you feel better about yourself like my friend Vera. They were try meant to spend their happiness together on this earth.
