“ To know my cousin Albert was to love him. His mild sweet manner seemed to be just one of his many loving qualities. Our families raised us to be more like sisters and brothers rather than cousins, and its because of this that my heart is so heavy in the loss of Albert. We didn't see each other often, but it never dimenished the love that we shared in our hearts. To Millie, children, grandchildren, Aunt Daisy, Charles Jr., Brenda, and Sandra, please know that you are truly loved and will forever be in my prayers. May God bless and keep you always.

“ To Millie and the Family: Please know that you have my deepest sympathy and love. I know you are now faced with the challenge of a loved one's absence. Cry to God for strength and guidance, and know that as soon as He hears your cry, He will answer you! He will give you strength when you are weary and increase your power when you feel weak. God is greater than any obstacle or difficulty you may be facing through these trying times. Cherish the memories that God has bestowed upon you. Open your heart, and by faith, receive God's strength and might. Let God empower you to live and overcome the challenging days ahead of you. When we pray with an attitude of faith, gratitude, and expectancy, it shows that we believe in God and His Word, and that opens the door for Him to move on our behalf. Again, you have my deepest sympathy and love; and I'm praying for you and your family.
