“ Alex, you will be missed. I got to know Alex on my daily walks through the neighborhood. He always took time to wave and smile and share a conversation with me and my dog Bentley. Alex you taught me how to be a neighbor, I will miss you but I will think of you and lift you up to our Lord Jesus whenever I pass your house.

“ We are so very sorry for the loss of Alex. He was a wonderful neighbor. He went out of his way to share a smile and an enthusiastic wave. He had so much pride in his home and it showed in how he was constantly working around his property. Debra and family, you are in our thoughts and prayers.
