“ I'm forever grateful to Algie for the love, kindness, and acceptance she always shared. My condolences to the family. Without question her physical presence is missed, but the joy is in knowing that her transition to continue her journey on a higher level is free of pain, suffering, , etc...

“ Ms Algie was the sweetest and kindest person but she didn't take anything off of anyone either. When I told her I was leaving Beyond, on my last day she took me to lunch. I really miss that. That's been in my mind constantly. We had the best talk and really enjoyed it.. I wish I would have known that would be the last time because I would have hugged you a little tighter. I miss you. You made a lasting impact, impression on my life. Forever grateful for our friendship. I even picked a red candle for you, love you my friend.

“ I worked with Algie at Vantiv for several years and then at Beyond. Can't say enough good things about her. Genuine, loving woman. I'll miss her for sure. Many times I'd supply her with U of L items I would find at the Goodwill. It was comical watching us negotiating a price. She was no pushover! If I could reach out and give her a hug, I would. Rest easy my friend. I'm including a couple of pictures I took of her and her beautiful daughter at a Beyond Christmas party a few years back. ~ Love, Joe Marsh
