“ To the family, I am so sorry for your loss. Alice was a beautiful spirit in this some times ugly world. If you were down, she would know how to pick you up. I had the distinct pleasure of knowing her since our days at PRP and continuing at UOFL. I considered Alice a friend. In this time of sadness take solace in knowing that Alice was one God's beacons and her spirit will continue to shine on all of us everyday until we say our last breath!!!! Bless you Alice and Rest In Paradise. Chip!!!!

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I wish I could be there. But know that my thoughts and prayers have always been with you, all during Alice's illness. I will continue to pray.I have memories of Alice at our family reunion of 2014 & the topic we cousins were discussing. Funny. As Gwen stated the suffering has ceased. RIP Alice. I LOVE YOU FAMILY!!!! ? GOD BLESS you all..

“ My condolences for Tony, the girls and grandbabies. I know Alice touched many many lives just as she touched mine. I knew her for only a short time but she was the kind of person who made you happy when you were with her. I will never forget Alice and her beautiful spirit. I feel blessed to have had the opportunity to know her. God bless, Valerie Gray

“ Dear Murrell Family, God is good, He will sustain you. God is faithful, He will not forsake you. God is loving, He will comfort you. (Roy Lessin) Your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Alice is at peace and in the arms of Jesus. She finished her race here on earth and victory is now hers. Be comforted in knowing that she loved you all and her memory shall always be in your hearts and minds. She is gone, but she left behind a part of her in each of you. Love, Otis and Linda Brown

“ Alice was a light in what sometimes can be a dark world...there wasn't a time that we spoke to each other that she didn't leave me better than when we met. My fondest memory...Alice had on this wonderful bling filled LOUISVILLE CARDS t-shirt. I asked her where I could get one! Well...in true 'Alice' fashion two days later on my desk was my VERY own CARDS t-shirt with all the bling! I'm wearing in now...I can feel her arms hugging me...I'll miss you Alice. Thank you for the love and laughter throughout the years...Linda

“ To family of my friend Alice Hill. May Gods Peace be with you now and in the days to come. Alice was a big part of the University of Louisville band with me and several of our friends that are here in Louisville and in Atlanta. We had each other's back! We are a family. On behalf of the our band group, Chip, Adrian, David, Ernest, Jeffries-- we loved Alice. She was our partner!! Cards fans forever. Our hearts are heavy with this passing of a dear close friend. May Gods blessings be with her husband and family and all who loved her. Peace to you all.
