“ Alonzo (Cricket), I am very sorry about the loss of your Dad, and my uncle. He will be surly missed and I will always remember when he use to come down to the house when I was little. He use to give me money and say "Boy go bye yourself some Ice Cream" He mad me laugh as will as to give me wisdom and knowledge on the little time I came back to Louisville, before I left to complete my Army career. He would have been proud to here me say that I retired with 30yrs of service. May the Grace Of Our Lord be with us all, in Jesus name Amen and Amen...Ricky & Deborah KannamorerkLouisvillekid@yahoo.com
