“ Angie, You will truly be missed. I remember the first I met you at U of L Hospital, working in dietary. You were the life of the department and a very hard worker. Test my sister and hope to see you again. To the family, Hold on to God's unchanging hand.

“ So sorry to hear of Angie passing. We became friends about 15 years ago. She was a person with plenty of energy and was always willing to help out any who she felt needed itHer passing was a shock to me. I just found out in an unusual way. To the family may God Bless you all. God will take care of you
