I am so honored to have known SiS. Duncan the past 4 years that I have been a member at Newburg Church of Christ. SiS. Ann welcomed me with open arms once I started the new convert class. She always greeted you with her beautiful smile. I already miss her inspirational texts that was so uplifting every single morning. I will miss her calling my name during roll call on our Thursday morning Bible class. SiS. Ann was such a genuine GOD fearing woman who will be truly missed. All My Love❤️❤️❤️

“ From candy and treats during church services to warm hugs and Derby Celebrations, Sister Ann always knew exactly what to say to make every person she encountered feel like they were indeed one of a kind. I've yet to encounter someone so thoughtful and generous always taking the time to reach out (even into adulthood) and quick to remember and celebrate a birthday (even my husband's as well). Sis Ann was truly heaven sent for her time here on earth and while we mourn this intense loss, we also find so much hope in the impact and legacy she has left on our hearts. Sending continued prayers to the family. We truly love you all! - AJ (Mills) Lee

“ Ann your beautiful smile will be sorely missed by everyone. Although I don't personally know your and Clarence's love story, I am most certain your smile played a significant role! I'm Victoria Culberson. Ann's mother-in-law (Mrs. Dorothy Duncan) is my mother-in-law's sister (late Mrs. Virginia Culberson). When Coyce Jr. and I became engaged, he was insistent on my meeting his cousins, 'Phinell' and Ann Duncan. We were invited to one of their cook-outs; Ann was so welcoming- so kind to me. The next time I saw her was Coyce's and my wedding day. As everyone walked by congratulating Coyce and me on our marriage, Ann stopped, held my hand, smiled warmly, and gave me a beautiful compliment on our wedding service. (...which I have not forgotten, all these 18 years later!) Phinell, Clarence Jr (Gwen), Joni, Coyce and I are grieving with you; but we understand we'll never comprehend your pain. So we are praying for you without ceasing. We are standing in the gap and interceding on your behalf as you mourn the loss of your mom and the love of your life. Our love to you, Coyce Jr & Victoria Culberson
