“ What i will miss the most is her warm and loving smile and strong hugs. Mrs. Edmondson was a shining example of what a Christian woman, mother and servant looked like. To meet her was to love her. I appreciate all the kind and wonderful things she did for me, my daughter (Kalin) and my mother (Queen Esther). She will be eternally missed, but we were so Blessed to have had her in our lives, Mother Edmondson we will meet again Love You for Forever

“ Mrs. Edmondson (Ann) will surely be missed. Her warm and loving hugs, kisses and kind acts will never be forgotten. She was such a beautiful woman of God who served him, her family and anyone who was ever in need. Truly a selfless person, a Great Example for all. She will be truly missed, but we will reunite again on the other side of Glory May she rest in perfect Peace

“ Ms. Ann Edmondson was a caring woman who never hesitated to pour into someone else's life. She poured into my life by taking an interest in what I like, which is the Arts. Whenever able, she would take my younger sister Naliyah, and I to musicals. Although her natural body has passed, I will never forget her. I love you. Rest in Peace.

“ My great grandmother had a sweet and gentle soul. I remember she would take Keyarius and I to musicals at the Kentucky Center for the Arts. I will never forget her. I love her.

“ I appreciate God giving me and my children a season with Ms. Ann. She shared so many stories of herself and how she liked to travel and see new places. I will never forget her words: "Anyone You go You take Yourself with You!" This is so true~~Regardless of your physical location, time, and relationships, wherever your Heart is, this is where You are. I will miss her and although we were not able to go out on our Dancing Date (with our Red Shoes), we WILL dance in Eternity!
