“ Sister Birch was a true icon of Saint Stephen Church. She will be missed by all. Although soft spoken, Sister Birch was firm yet gentle and was always a pleasure to be around. Prayers go out to the family. She left a legacy that will always be cherished by all of us at St Stephen church.

“ Anna Laura Birch: A wonderful woman who helped shape me into the woman I am today. She had a godly impact on and in my life. She and Papa Thomas co-parented me with my mother and encouraged me whenever I needed them. Her home was always open to me. My best friend's mom, yet she called me daughter until her death. I'm sorry I can't be with my family during this time. I love you, Mom Anna. Thanks for loving me. Robin

“ A kind word, an encouraging smile, and a halo that let you know She was a Godly woman. Blessed to have known her all my life & to have been raised in Church surrounded by the Love of the Senior Saints. I'll always remember her work in the Church Nursery & the Sunday She marched all the kids into worship, Her point was well taken - "It takes a Village." She will be missed, but PRAISE GOD her faithfulness will live on through The family, for they all are Kingdom builders.
