“ You have and will always be a staple at our church (12th Street P.B Church). When I think of 12th Street, I will always think of you. Along with granddaddy, granny, Aunt Louise, Uncle Rogers, Uncle Flynard, Sis. Wheeler, Marlena, Deacon Harris all of the GREAT mighty men and women of valor who helped to found the 12th Street legacy. Those who praised and worked in spirit and in TRUTH with a pure heart. No personal agenda's only to SERVE and worship the LORD. As a little girl you were one of my 1st mentors , our Sunday school teacher. Throughout the years you have taught me about God, how to live as a Christian and a young lady. Mighty woman of valor, beautiful on the inside and out. My love for you will never change. Rest in peace sweet lady. Love, Tiny and the Gardner family.
