“ Annie Roberts was an asset to the music ministry of Green Street Baptist Church as part of the choir with her strong soprano voice. She was never shy about leading a song, and she always gave her best. She was truly missed by the choir when she stopped attending church for health issues. To her children, we loved your mother and mourn with you, but we know that Annie Roberts is going to be alright because she chose to serve in the Army of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. May God grant all of the family peace and strength during this time of reflection and sorrow.
