Barbara and I went to the same Bible Study called Bible Study Fellowship and I would pick her up in my Red Ford Truck. Barbara would always try to climb in the front seat, head first. I looked at her and said Barbara we need to get your butt in first and head then move in your legs. She and I both would just laugh and some how we straightened her body. so we could fasten her safety belt and be on the way. Betty Fielden

“ To the Atkins Family,

You have my sincere condolences. May the many warm memories of your mother comfort you for years to come. She will always be in your heart and on mine. Love you all.

We taught at the same school and worked together at the Lincon Foundation, members of Jack and Jill and the Girl Friends, Inc. Friends Forever!

“ Condolences to the Atkins family for the loss of your matriarch, Barbara. She was a beloved member of our retired teacher group we labeled the Indian Trail Yayas. She was loved and respected for her talents, her giving heart, her advice, her loyalty, and always telling you how she really felt! So many memories! I will miss her always!
