“Daddy, I need your ears, today. I have so much to tell you, I really couldn't fit all on this page. I miss you and I love you. Sometimes, I wonder how your children who was brought up in the same house, could be so different in their way of thinking. We are ALL different, but taught the same things. Our values/ morales, should be similar. Huh? Please, stay close to each of us. If, this is something God allows. I know we need God's Blessings. I just believe in Angels. You would be an Angel. Smile! I miss you! Rest In Peace, Daddy!

“Hi Daddy. I am just fine, but missing you and my family. You were my sounding board. I don't have anybody to talk to, about anything that's important to me. People say that you can talk to me, but-- that's NOT true! You are truly missed, by me. I know you have peace in the valley. God is sooo good to me! That's real! Keep your wings around Linda, Marilyn and Gloria Jean. Those girls don't feel well! Tammy is moving about, but she looks like she is having a hard time walking. We need BLESSINGS spread all thru the family. We are falling apart, getting old! Smile! All my love to you and everybody in God's presence! RIP!

“ Hello Daddy. Merry Christmas, to you and the whole heavenly body! God keeps blessing us! Christmas shows us this, each year and every day throughout the year. I really miss you, Daddy! I spoke to Miss Ida a few days ago. Took her a Christmas present, left it with Annette. Miss Ida was at bingo. She is OK. Your kids are hanging in there. I am so thankful, that we are all here right now. BLESSINGS!! KEEP YOUR ANGEL WINGS AROUND US! GOD HAS ALL OF US!! My imagination has me thinking Angels can visit and look after loved ones. Might be wrong, but God can make anything possible. All my love to everybody! Rest In Peace, Daddy! GOD BLESS ALL OF US, THOSE THAT ARE ON EARTH AND IN HEAVEN! AMEN!

“ Good morning, Daddy. I had another surgery on my girls about a week ago. I am fine. God just keeps on blessing me. I made appointments for Linda. Trying to get her together. Phyllis drove Linda and I to the doctor. That was very nice. I can't drive just yet. Hopefully, soon. I am glad our sisters are helping out. People are so busy with their own lives, they don't have time for anybody else. I don't have that luxury, I have to do for my family, if I can squeeze the time. God just looks after me, even when I want to whine and complain. So, I just shut-up and do it. It is alright! Always alright! God forgives me, sets my mind on what I know is right and takes care of me. Thank You, Lord! Daddy, I miss you and all my family. I LOVE YOU, DADDY!! MY LOVE TO ALL!

“ Hello daddy, I know it has been a while since I last left you a message, but believe this I haven't forgotten you one bit. Been a little under the weather, but I still have to do what I have to do. i have just read Terri's messages to you and I feel bad, because I can't do more, I would love to help out with my sisters. But working in the day time is the time that is most needed. But I will be retiring around the 1st of December and I will be able to do more for others. I miss you and mom and wish I could visit you two for a while. I wonder if God ever allows that, I wish he did. Well I love you and i will get back with you later. This is my first day back at work from 11/28/2016. Tammy

“ Happy Valentine's Day, Daddy! I had a great day. Just being here and being able to do the daily things is a blessing. I know God has a purpose for me. Sometimes, I want to make my own decisions about my life, but God has a laugh, then directs me the way He wants me to go. I cry, fuss, argue, get mad at my circumstances, but when it's all over- God sends me to do just what He wants me to do. Smile! I don't mean to fuss. I just feel over-whelmed, sometimes. I am so glad you were here, when I found out about my cancer. I LOVE YOU and I MISS YOU, Daddy! Rest In Peace!

We all got things that we are going through. We just don't check on each other as much as we should, including me. All of your kids are still here, but there is going to come a day that God is going to come and start taking us one by one. So until that day I will just keep praying for each one of us. I'm getting old, maybe it's "arthur!". Smile! Thanksgiving Day is near, and yes, I am fixing a little dinner. Tammy invited Larry and I to dinner, but I already had my turkey sent to be fried, along with dressing. Not fixing much, but I am tired and hopefully, I can lay around on that day. We'll see! Christmas time I will try to get EVERYBODY, here. God willing! Daddy, I miss you! Please, keep us in your view, and Angel wings around us! ALL MY LOVE TO YOU AND OUR LOVE ONES, WITH YOU!! “ Hey dad, it looks like me and Terri send so many messages to you, but I know you are cool with that. Everyone doesn't get on the computer. I road pass your house yesterday and said Hi daddy. I wish I could go up there and just sit and wait on you to come out, but I knew you was with me when I passed. Do I miss you, heck yes. Can anyone tell me how long to miss you heck no. When I use to get upset with mom being gone, people use to say she is in a better place, which I knew she was, but there wasn't a date or time to tell me not to miss her. Just like you, no one can say how long this will last. I might not be able to send you a message after next May, but I will still be writing to you in my heart. Love You dad.

“ Hi daddy, it is going okay with me and the kids. I talked to Terri a few days ago and Roni as well. Everything is everything. I miss you and so I guess everything isn't everything right? Sometimes I get sad when I think of you and mom, not that you are both in a better place and you all deserve it, but I just miss seeing and talking to the both of you. I use to walk everyday over to one of your houses to sit and talk for a while than walk back home. Sometimes after leaving your house I would walk on over to mom's and sit a few minutes. Love you

“ Hey Daddy! So far, we are all doing fine. Phillip is happy, getting a house to live in. Talking to "Man" on yesterday, made me happy. He was preaching the Word of God! Yes, my brother does know our Lord! I was so proud of his conversation. I am trying to slow up on running around. I'm getting old and worn-out! Smile! Miss you so much!

“ Good morning my old sweet wonderful man daddy, dad, father, friend, of mines. I miss talking to you about mom for hours at a time. I am so glad that you was always there to listen to me when I talked about her, I missed her so much, but being with you ease most of the pain from her being gone from me, but now I am missing you and I just don't have anyone to take ease that pain away. You know when I came over I was always at home. At times I shed a tear like right now, so I have to wipe it away and keep on going. Love you dad

But anyways, tell mom I said I love and miss her and I can't wait to see all of you all. “ Okay, daddy it has been a while since I sent you a message. Daddy I miss you so much, sometimes I want to ask why you had to leave us, but in my young years, mom told me to never ask why. Sometimes I get so tired, missing you all that I wish i was with you and mom, but I know it isn't my time. It has nothing to do with the kids, without them I might just be lost, but than again with God i will find my way. I am so grateful for the life that you all gave me, and for all my siblings I am truly blessed. Like always I might not be rich with money, but I am rich with love. I know that you are watching us, and you can see the tears in my eyes, sometimes a drop my fall, but I always stop them. I think of all the times you didn't feel good, pain in your chest, no relief. Then, you had to depend on your kids to help you, even go to the next room to watch tv. I try to think back and hope I did right by you. I love you! I still need your courage and strength to keep me strong. Just doing this, helps me. You know, I believe in God. Always and Forever!

“ Good morning Daddy, I am at work this morning, trying to start my day off in a good note. I miss you every single day. Someone said if you cry than you feel guilty, I say if you cry you are just missing someone. I am scared to cry, if I start I might not stop. It was just like with mom, it took me a while, but when I did cry it was like it wouldn't stop. I am glad that you are up there with everyone and you are being taken care of. I love you so much. I can't wait until we all meet up again. Love you your daughter Tammy
