“ Mr. Higgins literally ran across my mind so I decided to google him and found his obituary. I was a student of his from 4th grade on up into high school. Mr. Higgins was a remarkable teacher/friend. He pushed his students to be the best at all times. Mr. Higgins was very inspirational to me which pushed me to become better and to strive for nothing but the best. I'm truly sorry for his family loss. He was such a great person and teacher.

“ Mr. Higgins was truly a Fantastic Musician and but for him to this very day I truly ADORE jazz! I first heard him play his saxophone in the 70's. He was always a gentleman and always wore a kind smile on his face. May the Lord truly bless his family. I am prayerful that God will give you strength and provide you with many cherished memories for a very long time! R.I.P., Mr. Higgins thank you so much for enriching our lives and Louisville with your gifted talents!!!

“ I learned of the passing of Bennett when I recently spoke with one of the former members of his jazz fusion group "Crisis" which had an extraordinary reputation in the Louisville area in the 70's. I first became acquainted with Bennett as an audience member in the late 60s. The first time I heard him play, I - as a lifelong jazz fan - couldn't believe my good luck to have discovered such a superb musician in my own hometown! Over the years, I got to know Bennett and his wonderful wife Linda on a personal level. Bennett was a world class musician and educator. I soon found out he was also an exceptional person with a great deal of humility and compassion for others. Our lives are better for having known him. I shall be forever grateful for his friendship and what I learned from him - about music, of course, but also about humanity & goodness. Thank You, Bennett

“ I'm so sorry for the tardiness of this note. I just today found out about Mr. Higgin's passing. He was such an inspiration to me in music and his calm demeanor was an inspiration to me in my life. He played songs for me at my wedding and now I can help his Scholarship Fund at UofL help many others like me understand music his way: from the heart. Many thanks to his family for allowing him to be a father figure to some bad kids from the hood. We all remember him, we all admired him, we all hope he plays with Gabriel when we are called home... That would be nice!

“ It's been a pleasure and honor to have been Bennett Higgin's student for the past eight years. Ever since I started playing the saxophone in 5th grade, Bennett has taught me everything I know and I owe everything I know from music to him. Bennett loved to play Jazz more than anything, and it was the last thing he taught me. I hope one day to be as passionate and masterful in Jazz as he was. Words cannot express how much I'll miss his guidance and company, Rest In Peace Mr. Higgins, thank you for everything.

“ Many prayers for the Higgins family! I grew up listening to Norman on drums, Bennett on sax and Jonathan on drums in the Higgins household back in the day. How sweet it was to get that kind of exposure as a young child..They were awesome along with their father Stanley. Bennett was a true lover of the arts and music who will be missed I am certain by many who knew him. I had not seen him in many years, but was aware of his illness and must say he fought the good fight with much spirit and courage.... Mr Bennett Higgins sir, rest peacefully.....Music is life, play on....

“ Bennett Higgins was a great compassionate influence in my life. I might not have made it through my first year of teaching without the comradery of the related arts teachers during our lunch/planning. Bennett would have us laughing with the stories from his childhood. But his real gift was in the music he played and taught to thousands. Luckily for us, he was playing well until the end. I was a sorry jazz student but he never gave up on me and my lessons with him these last years are treasured memories. His words of wisdom, humor and friendship will stay with me until I die. Go well friend.

“ Linda.... Jon..... Jonathan.... and to everyone in the Higgins Family..... Dianne, Josh and I were all saddened to learn this week that Bennett passed away. Each of us loved Bennett..... Josh maybe most of all.... And we will never, ever, ever forget him, or his spirit, or his generosity of spirit or his friendship. He has been a part of our lives and will continue to be a part of our lives in the wonderful memories we hold dear and cherish. Bennett knew that he was in inspiration to me.....even though he was constantly horrified that I would even consider opening a jazz club..... (When we closed the Jazz Factory, he just said....."Now I told you that was going to happen...") And as for Josh..... Bennett was like a second father for a good many years..... And I couldn't be prouder about that.

My greatest sorrow is that I can't be with you this week in Louisville..... But I hope to see you sometime in the future when I'm back in town.

Till then, love to you all..... We're all thinking of you.... and of all the wonderful memories we have of our dear friend Bennett....

with all my heart..... Ken Shapero
