“ I had the honor of transporting Ms. Bennie home from day program on many occasions. Most recently, my very own sweet Mother passed away quietly at my house. She was in her own room, wearing her favorite gown, and was cozy in her favorite quilt. I recall speaking to Ms. Bennie's Daughter about my loss, and how she was very sympathetic and understanding about the pain I was experiencing. Transporting Ms. Bennie was, in a way, like transporting my own Mother: It took patience, love, and understanding to bring Ms. Bennie safely home each and every day. Now, I find myself mourning for two. Rest in peace Ms. Bennie. It was an honor and blessing to take you home those busy evenings. If you see my Mom, tell her that I love and miss her so much. :)
