Ms. Bertha, I will miss you and our front porch talks. Thank you for asking me to stay in the neighborhood. Every time I see a peony bush I will think of you.

Please give Jesus and my momma a big hug from me. Until we meet again. It a pleasure being your neighbor for 6 years. You will be missed.

“ My Tribute to Miss Bertha

I have known Miss Bertha for most of my life. As a young child my sister Carolisa and I were members of the Broadway Temple AME Zion Church children's and youth usher board which Miss Bertha and the late Mrs. Hall supervised for many years. Miss Bertha was a loving but stern supervisor. As we grew up in the church I always observed Miss Bertha as a willing worker with her devotion as an usher, Missionary, and member of numerous clubs. After leaving Louisville for fifteen years I returned to find Miss Bertha still working faithfully in the church. When my mother was ill Miss Bertha was there to help keep her safe. After my open heart surgery, Miss Bertha was there for me visiting me daily. This is what I call a true missionary. We continued our friendship until the very end. I photographed Miss Bertha standing in line waiting to cast her vote during the pandemic. I had already sent in my ballot but she wanted to exercise her freedom to vote In person. Miss Bertha always did it her way. I will truly miss my mentor, surrogate mother and friend.

Rest peacefully in heaven Mrs. Robinson. I've had the pleasure of knowing her my entire life. She was also a great and devoted friend to my mother which I will be forever grateful.

Miss Bertha will be truly missed as a spirited, loving, caring, devoted, willing Christian worker. She loved her church Broadway Temple. She was dedicated and served. Miss Bertha told me my daughters were old enough to start ushering and told me to bring them next Sunday and have that youngest one stand next to me. I am sadden of her departure but know she is resting and ushering at heaven's gate. Michelle Washington

So sorry for your loss. I met Miss Bertha at my dearest friend Elsie Medlin 75th Birthday Celebration in Louisville, Kentucky. Truly, it was a Blessing to meet someone 20 years my Senior and carry on a conversation better than a 20 year old. God has truly Blessed her in a mighty way. I would loved to have been there for her Home Going, I was experiencing death in my family at that time. To all her family and friends that are left behind, I pray each of you have at least one good memory of Miss Bertha. Blessings to all, Sadie Loving-Jackson(Elsie Medlin's friend since 1980).
