“ Shawna, Our prayers are with you. We connected with your Mom as her family away from home, upon her coming to Louisville. Those contacts became lesser over the years. Providing you have the desire, we would take great pleasure in re-establishing and strengthening that bond we once had. Angels of the Lord are with you, caring for you. God's Blessings are upon you, Charlie, Barbara, Jack Junior, Sharyn Moore

“ To Shawna Truitt & Truitt Family,Just wanted to express my sincere condolences in the passing of Beverly Truitt. Beverly was such a sweet, personable, kind, strong willed and dear friend who I loved. I worked with Beverly at MSD and she was always charming, witty, always greeted you with a smile and just a lovely person all the way around. She recruited a lot of the ladies at MSD to join and participate in the BPW organization that she loved and was so proud to be in a leadership role. She was a christian woman with deep values and she instilled those values in her beautiful daughter, Shawna, who she loved dearly. If you saw Beverly, you saw Shawna. God has picked a beautiful flower for His Heavenly Garden. I will miss you dear friend. Rest in peace, Beverly. We loved you but GOD loved you best. May GOD be a comfort to you, Shawna and the Truitt Family during this difficult time.
