“ Dear Danita and Rachel,

I did not know your Mother but read her beautiful obituary in the Courier Journal today. I was inspired and impressed by your Mother's courage and strength in fighting the discriminatory practices of her employer in 1974. Her victory was not only a victory for her but a victory for all African - Americans and women. She truly was a hero and deserves to be honored. Thank you for sharing her important accomplishments.

“ Really sorry for your loss. Me and Birdie talked on the phone every so often. We are from the same hometown. We always sent each other a Christmas card every year. I will miss our conversations. Remembering you all in my prayers.
