“ Still can't believe this. Bobbie, you were loved for being the bright soul you were. Your presence always brought smiles and comfort. I'll always appreciate the countless memories we've shared since your freshman year at NKU. It's an honor to have met and known such a golden soul. A soul that genuinely cared. A soul that checked my pulse regularly, even when living miles apart. A soul that was always there to laugh with and vent to. A soul that always offered slick comments about my baby Hookah O's! Hahah!! You'll forever live on in my heart and mind. Until we meet again, Love you, my brother, my friend, my Lil Baby Bobbie..

He was truly one of the students who i adored and I love seeing him and his two friends Nia and Vincent Coming into NKU cafeteria at 6am in the morning to eat... One thing i can say he did eat! Lol... Bobby was truly one in a million. I'm so glad God aloud us to cross paths through this journey of life. Even though he saw fit to call this beautiful young Angel home.
