“ Thank you, Bobby, for your life. You helped so many and one was me. You spoke with deep humility and gracious strength. You were concerned about Linda and your family first and foremost but your love extended further to the guy and gal who still suffered. We may not see your like again in this life but we'll be together always. Love, Graddy J

“ Linda, One of my great joys working with the Medicare Partners was the many occasions I had to share a booth or presentation with Bobby. He never failed to say, "Ms. Pollock? This is Mr. Cooley." and that genuine, polite manner coupled with wit and insight made time spent with him a real joy. Sometimes he simply was a hoot! I so appreciated sharing our faith and witness of how God was working in our lives. These last few years we did not work together often, and I'm sorry to know that he went home to be with the Lord so soon. I am happy for what he's experiencing now but filled with sorrow for you and your family. My prayers are that the heavenly Father will give you peace and memories unending to sustain you, until you meet again. Janet Pollock

“ To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say...but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love. Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight. Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night. That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through, God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you." It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.I need you here badly; you're part of my plan.There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man. God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do.And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving yearsbecause you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before. There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too...that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain,then you can say to God at night....."My day was not in vain."And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile. So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low, just lend a hand to pick him up, as on your way you go. When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind; I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind. And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free, remember you're not going.....you're coming here to me. Ruth Ann Mahaffey (author) © Copyright 1998

He touched so many, and continues to teach, in so many life changing ways. His spirit was too grand for this Earth, now it has the ability to watch over everyone all the time. I will pray your family finds Serenity in this time of hardship. God, grant me the Serenity to accept the things I cannot change. the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the different.*

“ We have lost an amazing leader and a wonderful friend. Bobby worked tirelessly to help others, including the lawyers of Kentucky as a long-time member of our Kentucky Lawyer Assistance Program Commission. He always kept us on point and in the solution. “ Bobby & I go back to college days together where we shared a lots of life experiences. He was always the life of the party. He could bring the house down with quick wit that was always based on the current event of the day. Bobby always seemed to be more concerned about others rather than him. He prided himself on being well dressed and a professional example for others. He will leave a great void in God's creation here on earth. However, I can see him on his arrival in heaven picking out who needs a great joke and proceed to deliver a great one liner that give all there a great laugh. To Linda & family, I know you are in pain for his loss. However, he is in the place that we all hope to be when this journey here is done. Our loss is heavens gain. May the grace of almighty God be with you as you greave the loss of a great man.

“ Bobby Joe, if it was not for you, I would never know that there was an entirely different grade of bacon that was much better for me than Oscar Meyer. lol I remember you unwrapping a piece from a paper towel (unrefrigerated). It was the weirdest thing ever, but I trusted you and tried it anyway. It looked like you got it from the bottom of your bookbag. In reality, you were so excited to have embraced a new level of healthy eating that you could not wait to share it. I was not quite on board with you back then but what you shared was a seed that grew and now I care what I put in my mouth and as my budget permits, I will continue to remember you as I come into better and better healthy eating habits. I love you. Please please please tell aunt Vera and aunt Pete I miss them so very much.
