“ It's been so many years and I'm not sure if this is the same Bobby that attended DuPont Manual High. But if so, he was a very funny dude that always kept us laughing. Every single day he would have a new joke to tell and they were always funny. After joining the Air Force and moving away from Louisville over 35 years ago, he was one of the high school friends that I've thought about & missed over the years. RIP my friend.
