

Cameron Demetric Ross (Southeast)

January 6, 2005 - July 26, 2024

Cameron Demetric Ross, 19, born on January 6, 2005, in Louisville, KY. He was a beloved son of Christina Powell and George Ross. Cameron was the second child of Christina and the first child of George. He spent three memorable years at Western High School, where he formed many lasting friendships, before graduating from Doss High School in 2023.

Cameron's passion for basketball led him to Minnesota North College – Mesabi in Virginia, where he pursued his dreams. He also had a deep love for rap music and a remarkable talent for fashion design, always keeping up with the latest trends.

On March 26, 2024, Cameron experienced the greatest joy of his life with the birth of his son, Karti Josiah Ross. Becoming a father was Cameron's proudest achievement. He cherished every moment with Karti, nurturing and loving him with all his heart.

On July 26, 2024, Cameron transitioned to be with the Lord, leaving behind a profound void for those who knew and loved him. He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Carolyn Powell; great-uncle Quinn Powell, and god-sisters Janiya and Jada Robinson.

Cameron's memory will be forever cherished by his son, Karti Ross and his mother, Josie McDonald; his mother, Christina Powell; his brother, James Crenshaw, Jr.; his nephew, James Crenshaw, III; his stepfather, James Crenshaw, Sr.; his father, George Ross; and his paternal grandmother, Wanda Williams. He is also survived by his aunts, Charmaina (Marcus) Johnson, Leondra Brown, and Desiree Ross; his uncles, Leslie (Karmen) Powell, Michael (Ashton) Powell, and Darryl Thomas Powell; his god-sister, Jazmyn Robinson; his cousins, KaNyia Houston and Merlin Powell; and a host of other relatives and friends. And his fur baby "FeFe".

Cameron's legacy of love, creativity, and dedication to his family will continue to inspire all who knew him. He will be deeply missed but never forgotten.
