“ To the entire family of Carl Hines, Brenda white and family send their sincere condolences in the loss of Carl. I was unaware of his passing and did not attend his homegoing celebration but I wanted all of you to know how I respected Carl and what a gentleman he was. He had always been a friend to my husband, Gerald and me throughout the years and I will keep you all in my prayers.

“ Uncle Carl, I will cherish your memory as the 2nd Dad to Steph, Donald, Toni, and myself, mentor, friend, and Patriarch of our family. I'm sure going to miss all of the love and many laughs we shared. Thank you for being such an inspiration and excellent example of a husband, father, grandfather, Uncle, friend, and christian man. We will retire those shoes as noone else can ever fill them. Sleep in heavenly peace, I love and miss you dearly.

“ To our good friends Keith and Annette Hines and your family. May God bless your family at this time and forward. Mr. Carl Hines legacy in this community will always be remembered. May God bring you and your family peace. Romans 8 reminds us that there is nothing that can separate us from the love of God, not even death. Gods love never leaves us. Your Dad is living with God and your love for God and your father will always keep you connected. We are praying for you and with you-- Jeff and Rochelle Smith---

“ To the Hines family:Mr. Hines was one of the great African American men in the Louisville community who set an example for the next generation. He was a business professional, a community activist and representative of the people in the political arena. Mr. Hines and my father, Lattimore W. Cole were members of the Epicurean together. Please know that you all are in my thought and prayers during this time of sorrow.
