“ Once again, we are reminded of the frailty of human life. Again, we are summoned into the presence of death. Death is not the end, but the beginning of a peaceful sleep. A much earned rest from life's trials and tribulations.

Miss Carrie, it is your eternal reward for for your works and deeds. You were a loving Wife to Mr. George, a devoted Mother to 8 Wonderful Children, one of which is the Greatest Gift my life has known. Renina and I were blessed with the opportunity to celebrate with you, your 60th Wedding Anniversary. Words will never express my gratitude for your acceptance of me to be a part of your cherished family. For that, I will be forever grateful. Godspeed you to your destination on your new journey. It will be one of joy and happiness. Your suffering is over. I look to the heavens to see you smile over us. My memories will be forever etched in my heart. I Love You.

“ To Uncle George and to my cousins, Pudding, Sheila, Junnie, Cora Lee, Trina, Kevin, Nina, and Orlando:May the Peace of God forever comfort you. Please know that you all are in my prayers. Aunt Carrie was a great woman of God. I will always cherish the precious memories of her...her quiet and meek spirit, her soft voice, and beautiful smile. She named me, and I will always treasure her selection- Pamela Rochelle Butler. It has always been my honor to have been one of her many nieces. Many Prayers to you all!

“ Once again, we are reminded of the frailty of human life. Again, we are summoned into the presence of death. Death is an eternal rest, a peaceful sleep, and a step on your journey home. You've earned it and now it's yours. Godspeed to the land of milk and honey and I am forever grateful to you for the greatest gift my life has known. May it be the Lord's will, Renina and I will see you again.
