“ To the Family of Charles Crenshaw, we were so sorry to hear of your loved one's home going. Betty, I was in Atlanta during Charles' memorial service. I pray that God will comfort you all as only He can do. May fond memories and the love you all share continue to sustain you. With deepest sympathy, Ava Bingham Reynolds

“ I love my brother, Bubba, and will truly miss him. I use to love tagging along behind him going different places when he would let me. I was once one of his cheerleaders when he played baseball for the Westover's Baseball team.
