“ Wherever you may chance to be; wherever you may roam: far away in foreign lands or just at Home, Sweet Home; It always gives you pleasure, it makes your heart strings hum just to hear the words of cheer - "I see you've traveled some." When you get the brother's greeting and he takes you by the hand, it thrills you with a feeling you cannot understand. You feel that bond of brotherhood; that tie that's sure to come when you hear him say in a friendly way, "I see you've traveled some." And if you are a stranger in a strange land, all alone If fate has left you stranded, dead broke and far from home, if a stranger stops and takes your hand, it thrills you - makes you numb, when he says with a grip of fellowship, "I see you've traveled some." And when your final summons comes to take a last long trip. Adorned with Lambskin Apron white and gems of fellowship. The Tiler at the Golden Gate with square and rule and plumb will size up your deeds and say "Walk in, I see you've traveled some

“ I am saddened by the death of a dear friend. I had the pleasure of serving as Director of Music for Burnett Avenue in the 1980s and Deacon Huddleston was always a strong supporter of the music ministry of Burnett Avenue. My sincerest condolences to his family in this hour of bereavement.
