“ *Mr.Charlie was a friend that you could always count on, no matter what. His love of life, work ethic,and laughter; has taught us; numerous life lessons; but the real man;has taught us to firmly stand in times like these. So,we say to you- Mrs.Gholston and family, stand firm and walk love; and know that Mr. Charlie leaves you to carry on his legacy. We, the friends and Co-Workers;stand behind you. We're here for you and we support you in love and in memory of Mr.Charlie, we are to see you through. Remember if you can't stand now, God will hold you up as we to lift up your name in prayer. “ I am saddened at Mr. Gholston's passing. I knew him for many years from a business where I worked in Virginia. Even though I left that business over 4 years ago, I never forgot his bright smile and always a kind word. May your fondest memories of this kind man keep him alive in your hearts forever. With Deepest Sympathy
