“ Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. I am praying for the family, knowing that God is in control of this very situation. God will never leave you nor forsake you. Charlotte knew the Lord and I am sure she is singing in the heavenly choir. "This morning when I rose, I didn't have not doubt". May God bless you and keep you is my prayer.

“ To the Stevenson Family, my prayers are surely with you and your entire family...As I heard the passing of Charlotte my mind went directly to the great times we shared when she introduced me to the Gospel Music Workshop of America. We enjoyed several trips together. Family, know that God's choir is rejoicing as they have had to make room for one who loved to sing GOD'S PRAISES...

“ My prayers go out to Squire in the loss of his wife, best friend, and life partner, and to her children for the loss of their Mom. As a friend, I will definitely miss Charlotte, she made me laugh when I was not feeling it, she was inspirational when I was going through stuff. I will truly miss her. I will always keep the family in my prayers.

“ There are so many fond memories of Mrs. Charlotte. She was such a lovely example of being a Woman of God. Everything she did she did with excellence and for God's glory!

Billy and I admire the marriage Mr. Squire and Mrs. Charlotte lived out in front of us and others. It has encouraged us and we thank your for this.

I am so honored to have learned much about service to God, true womanhood, and unapologetically praising our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I will never forget your infectious smile, your desire to worship and you blessing us with "When I Rose This Morning".

We will miss you but we rejoice in knowing you are singing and shouting with the Lord now.

Mr. Squire we love you and will be praying with you and the family.
