“ What a beautiful person inside and out and a great friend just heard about her passing but I will miss her very much. She's in heaven now and she earned her halo and wings. She don't have to worry about no more pain or being sad. May God bless her soul so she can send all her blessings down to her loved ones...May she forever Rest In Paradise.

“ Nita B is what I called you after nearly 30 years of friendship, we've been through the most together. I am lost because I can't hear your voice or your infectious laugh! Your willingness to help your friends...was who you were! We have some very good memories and you have taught me so much my friend! I talked to you almost daily, now I must try to fill that void, but no one could ever replace you my friend! You are a designer's original CHARNITA RENEE BASEMORE AKA NITAB...you are truly missed not even death can break the bonds of TRUE FRIENDSHIP! I love you girl...get your rest!

“ I am Real Estate Agent and I met Charnita at an Open House that I was holding. I remember her being very chatty and oh so sweet! I offered to help her find a house for her and her daughter. And then the journey began. I picked her up each time that we went to look at houses, had lunch together. I got the feel for what she was looking for in a house. We found a beautiful new home for her and her daughter. I remember when we were doing the final walk through she was telling me where she was going to place her furniture and showed me where she was going to plant her garden. I always take care of my clients, but Charnita was special! I loved listening to her talk about how much she loved her daughter and how excited she was to invite her friends to her new house. At the closing when I gave her the keys to her new house she hugged me and cried tears of happiness. I was so excited for her and I felt I had made a new friend. She invited me over for lunch. I am heartsick for her family and friends and her sweet daughter to have lost such a beautiful person. My love and prayers go out to each and everyone that Charnita has touched. May God Bless and give you strength to get through this hard time. God got a Beautiful AngelMy Love, Melissa

“ Where to begin and what to say. I am at a lost for words right now. My Best friend, my kid's God mother. You always been my right hand. Now you gone and all I have is the memories and good times. You never know how much you miss someone until they gone. The simply things like phone call, visiting and text messages. To the family, God called home an Angel because he needed her.
