“ I have always admired and respected, no matter whatever happened, how Uncle Chauncy took exceptional care of all his children! My mom left us last Thanksgiving eve, 25 days shy of her birthday, age 95. When Mom was in her senior year at Kentucky State College, she eloped with our Dad and they married against her family wishes. Mom briefly lived with Dad's family while he served in Korea. Mother always said how delightful Uncle Chauncy was as a child, Uncle C. would have been about 4 years old then. Mother always said we should have a better relationship with Uncle Chauncy. I now regret that I didn't listen to her! My heartfelt condolences to Aunt Emma, Tony, Chauncy Jr., Kimberly, Mellisa, La Crissa and Richard! Take your rest Uncle, you truly are the last of the good ones of your generation! GOD bless you all!
