“ Irish I am so very very sorry. I just heard about Chester. I remember that beautiful smile, he always had a big hug every time he saw me. I always loved him (on 35th street) (smile). He is with God now, what ever the circumstance was, he is pain free and at peace. God bless you and your family, Chester's wife and children always. I Love you

“ I did not know him well , but knew of him for decades. The outpouring of viewers to see him at rest last night should show all people how he lived his life. Kind and with a smile. The life we are living now is getting shorter. What will people say about you? Change is always in order. May God bless and be the comfronter in days ahead to the family.

“ To the Crawford Family:You are faced with the challenge of a loved one's absence. Cry to God for help and guidance, and know that as soon as He hears your cry, He will answer you! He will give you strength when you are weary and increase your power when you feel weak. God is greater than any obstacle or difficulty you may be facing through these trying times. Open your heart, and by faith, receive God's strength and might. Let God empower you to live and overcome the challenging days ahead of you. When we pray with an attitude of faith, gratitude, and expectancy, it shows that we believe God and His Word and that opens the door for Him to move on our behalf.You have Auntie Doll and the Brown's Family deepest sympathy and love.
