“ I remember spending countless times with my cousin, Chiquita, at her grandmother's house, Ms. Mary who lived across the street from our house on 28th St. many years ago. Chiquita wanted me or my sister, Kay to spend weekends so we would scratch her head with a comb (lol) while we watched TV. It was such a fun time staying weekends because Chiquita was such a joy to be around with her smile or laugh. Cousin, you will be missed dearly but you are in a better place because you are with Jesus.

Always in my heart.

Love
