“ I met “Toots” at the B Mart. We clicked. We shared stories, experiences, giggles and her passing leaves a hole in my heart.. Two old ladies tottering along hand in hand. I was blessed to know her and will see her again. Hildabubbe.

“ Fallen Limb

*A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, “Grieve not for me”.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I’m counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don’t worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we’re together again.*

*I’m stunned by this news. I’m so very sorry for your loss.
My heart aches to hear this news .Please know that your friends love you and are here for you. My heart goes out to you. I’m praying for everyone. May GOD bless you and your family.*

To the family I send my deepest condolences. Toots was good people and we had lots of good times hanging out at the Greenwood Apartments and The Metro Lounge. RIP Toots. Those were the good old days. Deborah Price 29th Street.
