“ I was fortunate enough to work with Chris for a time over to Ricoh in Lexington. Besides being a copier sales veteran for the Bluegrass State , he was also a UK athletics legend . During my tenure , you'd be hard pressed to find a better colleague , mentor, and friend . I was new to sales at the time but Chris always said “ask for the bidness!” As a way to make me less passive while negotiating with customers and clients . Valuable lessons for sales and life . You don't get what you don't ask for . I know he's up there sipping his favorite drink- a fountain Diet Pepsi /Mountain Dew combination from Thorntons up in heaven. RIP

“ I met Chris a couple years ago and he was a very kind and respectable person that helped me in life lessons besides just being a friend. I'm not sure of his passing but he did tell me about his recent medical incident but he said he was doing good . I hate to hear about this , when I hadn't seen him for a little while I was hoping this wasn't the case. RIP my friend and thank you for being you. Until we see each other again , God bless your beautiful soul.

“ Was saddened to hear of Chris' passing today. He was our Ricoh rep and has helped me a lot the last several years. Super helpful and super nice. But we know in Christ it's not goodbye, rather just a short time apart. My condolences to the family and friends. - Brian, IT Manager, Lake Cumberland District Health Department

“ Chris and Angie was and are two of my favorite couples they was always full of fun and so much LOVE, you could not LOVE one without the other. I was so excited when Chris proposed to Angie because now she was Chris’s fiancé. I was so happy because they was so excited and moving toward being each others Help Mate. Angie Loves Chris and Chris Loved Angie ~ But God Loved Chris the most.

“ Chris and I met at Xerox in the late 1980's. Chris helped me as a Xerox negotiator in most of my major accounts and I can't think of one large account he wasn't instrumental in getting signed up for me. I grew to love him as a co worker and friend.

*He was one in a million and will always be in my heart...forever!
There was not one thing he wouldn't do for a friend or someone he didn't even know.*

When I had surgery in Louisville a year or so ago, I was staying at a hotel after surgery and he drove all the way from his home (fast) and brought me and my sister food. He would do anything for anyone if needed.

I was due to stay with my husband and my house this week or next to go to Ellis Park due to Churchill Downs racing transferring to Evansville.

*I was so excited to see and spend time with him.
I am heartbroken.
His laughter, positive outlook, and loving care for everyone.*

*I will miss him greatly.
My heart goes out to Angie and his entire family.*

The will only be ONE Chris Hill.

God bless you Chris. We will see you soon in heaven

All my love.

“ Sorry to hear of the passing of Chris Hill. As a teller at Churchill Downs, I have known Chris for over 20 years. He was always polite and friendly to other customers and me. He often asked about my son Kyle, who worked with him years ago. God bless his family and friends. Mike Sadler.
