“ Clavon it's your " favorite cuz" as you always called me (tears). Still can't wrap my head around the idea that you are gone. I love you and miss you soo much. You taught me how to dive when we were younger, you taught me about rap starting with slick Rick and Dougie Fresh to LL cool J and they are still my faves til this day, your favorite song was pleasure principle by Janet Jackson, we wore it out on your boom box lol. It was always a good time when you came to Atlanta for the summer. The friends that you made back then would still ask about you when they saw me. Everytime I come to Louisville ,youre who I look for! Now it will just be memories (tears). Even though we've all aged, we will always be the #5amigos...Quentin, Clavon, Tamu, Erika (me) and Jason!! We love you forever cousin, You Are Free, fly high!! 😇

“ To Clavon's mother, Carol Belser! My sympathy and prayers for you and all your family, Carol! I unfortunately will be out of town on Tuesday, Feb. 6th, so I can't make it to the funeral home that day. My prayers will be with you and hope to see you soon at St. Augustine. Peace to all, Fr. Joe Graffis, former pastor of St. Augustine.

“ My deepest, and most heartfelt condolences to you Ms. Carol and all of the boys and Clavon's granddaughter. Clavon was the love of my life since Red Oak Lane and I did all I could for him during these last 4 years. You raised a very special man and he has raised some very special men who will carry on his legacy and love for life. Most of all may The Lord wrap His loving arms around you all and give you peace knowing sweet Clavon is in our Father's Heaven and in our memories forever. I love you and the boys Ms. Carol. Love, Gee
