“ Clyde was a class guy with a down to earth demeanor who never forgot where he came from. Because of our shared Mississippi roots, we always had to hug and catch up every time I visited Cardinal Chrysler Jeep Dodge. I wasn't the only one. Anyone who visited the dealership loved the always impeccably dressed Clyde Pittman. Not often in business do you meet someone who you are confident truly cares about you and your family. Clyde was that guy. He made everyone he encountered part of his family. Clyde Pittman will always be one of my heroes because of the way he treated others. May his memory bring comfort to his family and friends. And may God bless his soul.

“ To my Uncle Clyde. May you rest in peace. I remember the first day my aunt introduced you to me. Thank you for the memories. Thank you for loving my Aunt Lela. Many years after Lela passed, we continued to call each other until a few years ago when I couldn't get in contact with you. You are apart of Lela's family. Yes you were a sharp dresser. I could go on and on but take your restAs you rest in peace and you and Lela can be joined together again.

“ Clyde was such an unbelievably kind, soft spoken, humble, loving, man. I was a young man in the car business, in love with Dodge product and eager to learn, Clyde was always offering training a kind word and compliments. He sold my grandmother a car in the mid 80's and remembered her name in 2002. I am honored to have known you and your family, Clyde. Heaven is a far better place now and the Earth has lost a kind soul. You changed my career and my heart for the business.I will see you in Heaven one day my friend. Chris Wilkinson P.S.. You're still the sharpest dressed man in the car business
