“ Connie, I miss you so much. Your glowing personality was always so refreshing every Sunday morning. I missed that this passed Sunday and will continue to miss it, but the memory of you will always be with me. You had overcome so much, it shows us what God's grace and mercy can do when we submit ourselves. To Asa, Eric and your family, my prayers are going up for you. I know this is a hard time, but with God and time it will get easier. God will bring you through the loss of Connie, just how He has bought us through so many things through the years. Hold to God's unchanging hand, because He is holding you. Always in my prayers and thoughts,
