“ I have fond memories of uncle Coolidge and aunt Julia back on the Farm, Uncle Coolidge taught me how to drive along with several other tasks that were farm related. I shall always remember the kindness and patience he often displayed in difficult times. He will surely be missed but the heavenly father knows best.

“ *To Aunt Julia and family...Please accept my deepest condolences.
Although you may not remember me (Billie's and Rice's oldest daughter) I do have fond memories of you and Uncle Coolidge when I was a child. May the Lord grant the family peace and His ever-present strength during this time.Sincerely,Carolyn Brown
