“Mrs. Daisy Nelson was a person that one could never forget. Mrs. Nelson was a beautiful wife, mom and teacher of the Bible; brilliant in the word, brilliant in the Bible, and brilliant in her God. Mrs. Nelson stood for truth, honor and dignity. Mrs. Nelson was a lady who was respected, by many, as she walked the walk of grace, and humility, giving honor, at all times, to our God. When you saw Mrs. Nelson, you wanted to be on your very best behavior to make her proud to know that her good works, that she had shared and instilled in you, were definitely working in you. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson's beautiful daughters, Pam and Debbie were exceptionally smart in the Bible that it was just a blessing, in our growing up days, to hear them recite the chapters in the Bible, knowing that they had some of the best teachers, in the land. Pam and Debbie, you were given great gifts - a mom and dad who adored and loved you and instilled in you heaping doses of Love for Family, Love for Church, Love for Friends and Love for God. May Mrs. Nelson Rest In Peace, Sincerely, Susan Winburn LaMarr. . .
