“ I was Darrell's Home Health Physical Therapist and he was one of my most favorite people! He was always pleasant, eager to work on his mobility and pushed himself to excel. He had a positive outlook on life despite his mobility challenges and was determined to be independent and as self sufficient as possible. Spending time with him was a blessing. The Heavens are blessed by his sweet soul and spirit.

“ Darrel Ditto was a faithful friend who cared about me and my family. Before his health began to fail in 2016, I would pick him up every week and bring him to my house and he would help me with all the chores and maintenance at my house that I could not do myself. We talked politics, religion, and all the affairs of life and we had a great time working together every week for quite some time. He has gone on to Heaven and is in a happy place. He was a good man and a source of strength and comfort to me. May the peace and rest of God and blessing of God be upon all his family and friends.
