“ Darrick was the first and best friend I had in Louisville, after moving there as a new resident.

I met him in an interview with him as he was a pressroom manager at Beechmont Press. It was an intense interview, after I presented my portfolio he swept it off his desk and said " how do I know you printed that".

He hired me and became closer during my being tutored by him.

We parted as work mates after his connections informed him of a better printing position for me at Papa John's corporate office.

We remained friends and later he was my best man at my wedding.

We worked together again at Ivyhill corp.

He was my best friend, we took a trip to Ohio, where he met my family and my mother loved him like her own son.

I will miss him for the rest of my life.

“ To Carol and the family. My prayers are with you all. May you find peace in the midst of your grieving. No one knows about that day or hour even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.
