“ We grow up in the same neighborhood, And He and our family member attended Wellington elementary, For some reason the school put family & friends from the same neighborhood in what the school said was a split class of 4th & 5th grade and Daryle would outta nowhere would laugh out loud like Popeye the sailor! Lol He did it so much that other students started doing it, Later that day I guess the teacher who was pregnant had had enough, And said the next time i here someone eles make that sound there will be no going outside! Class goes silent for a split second! And All of sudden Daryl makes the sound! And the class erupts in laughter!!! So once the teacher got us back under control, We had to lay our heads on the desk for the rest of the day! We all laugh the entire bus ride home!!!! Didnt take long to split that class up! Lol rest well Mr. Crook ill always hold on to that memory and the many others!

“ Oh how I'm going to miss my big cousin better known as Kingboo. He was a wonderful, kind, funny person to be around and everyone loved him but he was my cousin that always gave me a word of encouragement and advice. I can hear him saying to me De'J always respect your parents and do what my aunt Marvinna and uncle Cornell tell you are you will hear from me because you got everything man So don't get stupid. I know he's in a better place but it's hard to say good bye, God will take care of him I know there's know more pain and suffering I pray that we will all be together again one day So get your rest on big cousin. R. I. P. Kingboo In God Heavenly Home.
Love You Always!!
